LA SALLE LOYALTY SONG

We'll be ever loyal to thee, La Salle;
Ever willing to prove our devotion.
As Explorers we'll always go onward,
exalted in heart and soul.
We'll strive to reach our goal,
O'er ev'ry crag and shoal,

The Blue and Gold—our constant inspiration.
We'll be ever loyal to thee, La Salle,
As we rally and sing of thy glory,
La Salle. Repeat (rubato)

The past years have marked a tremendous expansion in the history of La Salle College. We have grown both scholastically and physically into one of the leading colleges in the nation.

One of the most instrumental individuals in La Salle's growth has been Brother F. Christopher, our Dean. His professional touch in administration, his keen insight, and general interest have won the admiration of faculty, alumni and the entire student body.

It is in recognition of the many benefits La Salle has received through our Dean and upon the occasion of his Silver Jubilee as a Brother of the Christian Schools, that the Class of 1955 together with the staff members of the Explorer take pride and pleasure in dedicating our yearbook to Brother F. Christopher, Dean of La Salle College.

Student Faculty Committee

MEMBERS—(Left to Right)—Brother D. Augustine, F.S.C., Ph.D., Professor of Sociology, Advisor to Student Council and Director of Student Organizations; Brother D. Vincent, F.S.C., Ph.D., Professor of Psychology, Advisor and Consultant to The Counseling Center and Advisor to The College Junior Class; Mr. Max Guzikowski, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Philosophy and Advisor to The Senior Class of The Evening Division; Brother Daniel Bernian, F.S.C., Ph.D., Vice-President of La Salle College in charge of Student Affairs; Francis Griffin, President of Student Council; John Brady, President of Residence Hall Council; Francis Donohue, Chairman of The Executive Board.

The Student-Faculty Committee serves as a forerunner to the following two sections of the 1955 Explorer, Faculty and Seniors. This committee is an example of the close co-operation that can be attained between the members of the Faculty and the students in formulation of government policy-making. The Committee is composed of the Professor-Advisors, the Vice-President of La Salle and the Senior Presidents of the student governmental bodies on Campus.

The Student-Faculty Committee derives its most tangible reason for existence from the fact that it brings students and instructors closer together and gives them mutual opportunities to discuss their difficulties. In such a situation, both representative groups feel free to discuss problems of the campus candidly in the hopes that such a frank and open approach will eventually lead to a solution of the problems immediately at hand. Under such a system the students feel that they have a specific group to which they can present their grievances and for precisely this reason they come to believe that they have a voice in all the affairs of their campus.

SOLEMN HIGH MASS
 in Honor of

ACADEMIC CONVOCATION
 Distribution of Awards, Conferring of Honorary Degrees.

A Message from the President

I wish to thank the members of the Senior Classes of both divisions for their support of Founder's Day Exercises. The attendance of the student body at the various activities was very heartening. The military review was not only a splendid salute of the R.O.T.C. to the Saint whom we honored on that day, but was also a fine tribute from the lower classmen to the graduating Seniors.

The Senior Class of the Day Division inaugurated what is hoped will become a strong tradition at La Salle—the corporate class gift to the Building Fund. This class gift should be substantial beginning of their participation at the Class of 1955 in Alumni Annual Giving. I cherish the hope that classes to follow will support the fine leadership of the Class of 1955. Such a program of class giving could very well plant its roots even during the first year. This kind of student participation in the development program of the College will bring the student body closer to the College and the College closer to the student. Already, the Class of 1958 has shown its fine spirits by contributing a portion of the Freshman Dance profits to the Building Fund. This contribution will be credited to that Class.

Let me wish you a full measure of success in your final examinations. To all the students go my best wishes for a pleasant summer.

BROTHER E. STANISLAUS, F.S.C.

The Student Council of La Salle College

When you want a job well done, you naturally choose a man who will do it best. Frank Griffin fulfilled, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that capacity for La Salle.

No matter what the chore—whether meeting the public as La Salle's representative, starting a dance committee, or getting students together for a bus ride to the NCAA basketball games in New York—Frank always did his job and tried to give everyone else the glory. However, in the last try he was unsuccessful. His fellow students—his friends—realized at all times that first and foremost in Frank's mind was their welfare.

Student Council presidents in the past have all been good men. But the Class of 1955 was extremely fortunate in acquiring the best. With the timely advice of Brother D. Augustine, Council moderator, and the class presidents behind him, Frank did more for the student government than has been done in a long time.

Unless there is good student government at any school, college or university there is bound to be discontent. At La Salle there is only the highest esprit de corps. We had the best at La Salle for the four years we spent here and came to the fore in 1955.

Thanks to Frank Griffin, Brother Augustine and the men of Student Council.

Through the efforts of these men . . .

The Executive Board Of La Salle College

The Executive Board of La Salle College was organized as an independent organization in October of 1954. Prior to this date, the Presidents of all campus organizations, of which the board is composed, served as an advisory board to Student Council. The combined Board and Council decided that the best interests of harmony and co-operation among campus clubs would be served if the advisors were organized independently.

The Board achieved a great measure of success in its first year. The biggest job handled by the Executives and their aides was the Second Annual Open House at which time the College entertained 1,500 people.

However, the biggest service rendered to the College by the Board as a unit was the birth of a new spirit of co-operation among the students involved in extra-curricular activities. Through the efforts of these men the entire plan of activity at La Salle reached a new high and a new tradition has begun.

. . . a new tradition has begun.

Moderator Brother D. Augustine and Frank Donohoe, Chairman of the Board, were the chief instruments in the creation of the Executive Board.

La Salle COLLEGIAN

JAMES P. PARKS
Editor-in-Chief

Jim Parks was no stranger to the newspaper game when he took over the reins of the Collegian in January of 1954. A member of the "fourth estate" since he helped found the "Salesianum Review," Wilmington's Salesianum High School paper, Jim was the chief instrument in the attainment of high journalistic standards by the Collegian during his tenure as editor.

Under Park's leadership the Collegian made rapid strides in complete news and sports coverage and gave the student-reader the real "low-down" on the La Salle news front.

The other editors, of course, made Park's job a little easier. News Editor Joseph Kane, Associate Editor Robert Kelleher, Sports Editor Raulo Parmegiani, Executive Editor James Pennestri, Copy Editor Alexander Butrym and Circulation Editor C. T. Darragh all contributed to the newsworthiness of the paper. The moderator, Dr. Joseph L. Rafter, was the guiding light in all endeavors and was a constant source of inspiration to the student newspapermen.

The reporters, too, deserve commendation. Harvey Portner with his sports and activities columns, Jim Cain with his feature and yearbook articles, Nick Dienna and his sports columns, Larry Maguire and his news scoops and sports feature column, and the hosts of others whose names are included in the Collegian box in the lower right hand corner of the opposite page merit quite a bit of the glory.

The Collegian attained many heights during our senior year. We can only commend our paper for its fine work and thank its staff for keeping us so well informed.

COLLEGIAN AWARD TO U. S. N. & W. R. EDITOR

Mr. David Lawrence, editor of the national news weekly, U. S. News and World Report, and syndicated Washington columnist was named winner of the 1955 Collegian Award for Outstanding Service in the Field of Journalism. Mr. Lawrence was voted the award by members of the Collegian staff.

The award was instituted in 1949 and has been awarded to outstanding men in the writing profession each year. Mr. Lawrence became the seventh recipient and joined such notables as George Sokolsky, Edward R. Murrow, Red Smith, Bob Considine, Morley Cassidy and Ed Sullivan who received past awards.

The 1955 award was given to Mr. Lawrence in recognition of the valuable service performed by both his column and by the magazine of which he is editor. His column appears locally on the editorial pages of one of Philadelphia's newspapers.

N.F.C.C.S.

The National Confederation of Catholic College Students is an organization of Catholic college students throughout the country with the purpose of acquainting the students with their responsibility to themselves, their fellow students and post-college communities and to contribute to Catholic lay leadership.

Operating through a series of National and Regional Commissions, NFCCS coordinates and directs activities in such fields as Interracial Justice, Mariology, Press, Family Life, International Relations, Liturgy, Missions, Student Government, and other inter-related fields. NFCCS is one of the groups which fulfills the Papal definition of Catholic Action.

The Youth Department of NCWC directs each member college (there are 182 at present) to select or elect two students who will represent their college on the Regional Executive Council and plan the program for the Region. These two delegates will report to the student body on the activities of the Federation on all levels.

This year Michael Dempsey was elected Senior Delegate and Albert Geigerech, Junior Delegate from La Salle.

Also here at La Salle is the Regional President, Joseph Rodriguez and the Regional Secretary, Ronald Gangemi.

Pre-Med Conference Attracts 300 Delegates

Last Saturday, La Salle's Delta chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta, national premedical honor society, held their Fifth Annual Eastern Pennsylvania Premedical Conference. Host for the affair was Woman's Medical College and the Woman's chapter of the Junior American Medical Association. As was anticipated, an enthusiastic group of some 300 pre-medical students and educators from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland attended the conference which placed this one among the more successful in the series.

In the morning session, shortening tours of the medical school and hospital facilities, including the newly constructed and extensively equipped wing for preventive medicine were conducted by the senior students of Woman's Medical College. As a gesture of hospitality, each person in attendance was given a free chest X-ray. A free luncheon was then offered by the medical school. Later in the afternoon, at 3:00 P.M., a symposium was held at the auditorium. A panel of illustrious doctors, each representing one of the five medical schools in the Philadelphia area, spoke on and attempted to solve the many pressing problems of the premedical and medical student.

The chairman for the symposium was Brother D. Viboud, F.S.C. Ph. D., Professor of Pre-theology here at La Salle College.

Alpha Epsilon Delta

Alpha Epsilon Delta is a National Premedical Honor Society. Its objectives are: To encourage excellence in premedical scholarship, to bind together similarly interested students, to promote co-operation and contacts between medical and premedical students and educators, and to aid in the development of an adequate premedical education.

In conjunction with the above aims, the Delta Chapter of AED at La Salle sponsors an annual premedical conference at which educators and students from a four state area convene to discuss problems in premedical education. An added feature of the conference is a tour of one of the local medical schools. The 1955 tour and conference took place at the Women's Medical College and Hospital.

The annual banquet, initiation of pledges, movies and socials make up the other activities of AED.

Brother F. Christopher proudly presents the future doctors of the Atomic Age.

... Brother Christopher surrounded by future men of Science.

The Fabrician Society has as its purpose the furtherance of the common interest among Biology majors and the creation of permanent bonds of fraternity among its members.

Regular activities of the society include film presentations and addresses by men from the allied biological fields. The addresses include such topics as Microscopy, which was given by Mr. Raymond Schiff of the American Optical Company. Another of the 1955 highlights for the Fabrician members was an address by the ever enjoyable Dr. Holroyd who spoke on the various fields of medicine.

An innovation this year was the off-campus social held at the Philadelphia Cricket Club which proved to be a grand success.

An even more significant project was the student chest x-ray program which attempts to check the well-being of every La Salle student at some time during his matriculation.

Fabrician Soc. Holds Social

The Fabrician Society of La Salle College will conduct the 1954 edition of the "Annual Fabrician Social" this Saturday night, December 11, at the Flourtown Branch of the Philadelphia Cricket Club. The music for the affair will be provided by the "Colleghans," the group that did such a fine job at the S.B.K. Thanksgiving Dance.

According to John Siliquini, Fabrician president, this year's social will mark two firsts in the history of the society. It will be the first Fabrician Social to be held at an off-campus location and the first to be open to the entire student body of La Salle. He expressed the hope that it would set a third record in being the most successful ever.

Several field trips to scientific laboratories and occasional films round out the scientific activities of the society. Social activities are also supported by the Newtonians in co-operation with the other science clubs of La Salle.

SOCIALLY ACTIVE—The Accounting Association holds, each year, an annual dinner-dance and this year was an important cog in the Business Area Combined dance (S.I.A.M.) held in April at the Philadelphia Rifle Club.

ACCOUNTING OFFICERS—(Seated) Joseph Hunter, W. J. Kaiser (Moderator) and Thomas Bagnell; (Standing) Joseph Antol and Frank Noonan.

The Accounting Association is an organization for all upper classmen majoring in Accounting who are interested in broadening their knowledge of financial matters and being appraised of the opportunity for positions subsequent to graduation. The activities of the club during the year were planned to carry out these purposes.

Among the interesting speakers at the Accounting Association's meetings this year were Mr. Harry Gross, C.P.A., who spoke about the opportunities and requirements of public accounting and Mr. Martin Maloney who showed movies and lectured on I.B.M. Accounting.

Marketing Association

The purpose of the Marketing Association of La Salle College is two-fold: to promote, through research, study, discussion and publication, interest in the principles of Marketing and in methods by which our standard of living may be improved through sales, advertising and market research; to create a high ethical conception of social responsibility on the part of the student.

The members of the society have heard speeches presented by representatives of many of the leading firms in the Philadelphia area.

However, all is not work. The many social affairs sponsored by the society have always been a great success. During 1955, the Marketing Association held two dinners, two socials, and were instrumental in the success of the first annual business area dance held in April (S.I.A.M.). In May of this year the society held a picnic which was hailed as one of the highlights of the La Salle social year.

Officers are: Hugh P. Hancy, President; Rodney Smyrk, Vice-President; John J. McGrath, Treasurer; Allan J. Gilson, Secretary. Mr. George Swoyer is the moderator.

SAM

The La Salle College chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management aims to enhance the application of scientific management principles in industry and to foster the development of future managerial talent. The society is associated with the Philadelphia Chapter of the National Professional Society of Management Men.

The activities of the chapter during 1955 included six plant trips to various industries in Philadelphia and surrounding areas, participation in the competition for the student-chapter Performance Award, attending senior chapter meetings and conferences, and holding regularly scheduled meetings on campus.

Activities such as those mentioned above held by S.A.M. prepare the college man for a more efficient role in the management duties he will perform in industry upon graduation.

Sociology Club

Sociology Members.

The Sociology Club was established at La Salle to help Sociology majors augment their classroom lectures with practical experience. Under the guidance of the club moderator, Mr. Donald N. Barrett, and the club officers, James McKenna, Ronald Gangemi, Herbert Keilman and Edward Miller, a widespread list of activities was undertaken.

Trips were made to Fordham University and Catholic University, to the United Nations, the F.B.I. Institute and Haverford College. A forum on dating was held in conjunction with Chestnut Hill College for Girls.

The Sociology Club was one of the most active clubs on campus during the year.

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega is the newest campus organization. Starting as a petitioning group in the fall of 1954 the new fraternity received its charter in May of 1955.

Most of the men in the Sociology club were instrumental in the formation of the new group and through their hard work were successful in helping many other people beside themselves.

Helping youth is their primary aim. The members served the youngsters at recreation centers throughout the city.

The Education Society

The members of the Education Society of La Salle College are interested in furthering the educational opportunities of young people and in promoting a greater insight into the field of teaching. Realizing the importance of such interests, Brother Azarias, club moderator, encourages in the members a desire to educate themselves by hard work, thereby enabling them to help others by their experience.

Every student enrolled in the Education curriculum is a member of the Education Society. Their chief endeavor is "to create situations in which children learn." Chief recipient of the services of the organization is Saint Basil's Orphanage where some of the members teach and others have developed recreational facilities.

Masque Marks Twentieth Year

Founded in 1934, the Masque strives to promote dramatic activities at La Salle and is a social and fraternal organization devoted generally to the welfare of the college and particularly to the advancement of its theater.

The year 1954-1955 found the Masque celebrating its twentieth year as a campus organization—second oldest at La Salle. From its first production of "Silas, the Chore Boy" through the following years until its tremendously successful presentation of "Carousel" the Masque has always been at the top of La Salle's biggest and best organizations.

The Masque officers (Top Right) for this year include Frank Donohoe, Vice-President; James McKenna, President; Joseph Kane, Treasurer (all seated); and (standing) Chancellor John McCrane and Secretary John Lombard.

With Production of Carousel

The Collegian reporter, John Snyder, had the words for "Carousel": "The entire performance was smooth, confident, and did full justice to Rogers and Hammerstein's great 'Carousel.' From the beginning it must be said it was the Masque's success. Though there were fine individual performances, only a well-trained group with everyone cooperating could produce such an ordered and pleasurable musical. You can be sure that the moderator, Dan Rodden, had much to do in achieving this."

Terese Ann McGroarty as Julie, Clem Feeny as Billie, Henry De Luca as Mr. Snow, Virginia Vassallo as Nettie, Mary Mackin as Carrie and the loveable John McCrane as Jigger together with the whole orchestra and chorus proved without a doubt that the Masque members of the future can look back to 1955 as a year when the pinnacle was reached and higher mountains must be found to scale. It was a "twenty-one gun salute" production.

Varsity Club

The purpose of the Varsity Club is threefold: to organize the letter men of La Salle in a fraternal organization; to advance and improve varsity and intramural athletics; and to support all athletic teams.

The primary requisite for membership is that a player or manager have earned a varsity letter.

Activities of the Varsity Club are many. Parties are held during the year after important athletic events and when the College needed cheer-leaders, the Varsity Club came to the rescue with the leaders of this club donating their services.

On May 30 the club held its annual dance "ytisraV bulC" (that's Varsity Club spelled backward). At the Dance all Senior members were presented with pins and scrolls.

Los La Sallanos

From the standpoint of social, cultural, and religious activities, the Spanish Club had its best year during 1954-55. Having an active membership of 24 students, it was among the top clubs on campus as well as the most active off campus.

Many activities for the year included a dialogue Mass in honor of St. Teresa of Avila, the club's patron saint; presentation of an original musical production, "Sous and Pesos"; an International Rosary recited in seven languages; and a total of nine lectures by students and guests.

Sigma Beta Kappa

The Gamma Chapter of Sigma Beta Kappa fraternity at La Salle College inaugurated the school year 1954-55 with a swimming party at Elkins Park. This affair typified the true spirit of friendship and brotherhood that was predominant throughout the year. Sigma Beta Kappa, a national Catholic fraternity, is devoted primarily to the development of character on a solid basis of Christian morality, through brotherhood and friendship, an example of which is above.

The Fraternity's secondary purpose of Catholic Action was highlighted by a Christmas party for the orphans at St. John's Orphanage. The entire proceeds from the successful Thanksgiving Dance sponsored by the SBK members were contributed to the purchase of toys for a Christmas party for the orphans. SBK has given such a party for the past few years with the happiness of the small children in mind.

An annual picnic and Dinner Dance mark the other activities of the Fraternity.

Beautiful scenery and lovely girls at Frat Picnic.

On Wednesday evening, Sigma Beta Kappa held its annual dinner-dance at the Melrose Country Club. The affair was attended by the members as well as the pledges. Twenty-three pledges were officially accepted and welcomed by the fraternity, and the officers were formally installed into their respective offices. They are Charles Mellon, president; Robert Clarke, vice-president; Edwin Stein, secretary, and Angelo Amoroso, treasurer.

Another highlight of the affair was the bestowing of a life membership upon Brother Damlan, faculty moderator.

The final undertaking of the fraternity this year will be the annual picnic. The officers have decided that it will be held in Pennsbury, but the date is still undetermined.

President Charles Mellon has announced that "this year's fraternity has been one of the most successful in its seven-year history," and that "plans are already being formulated to make next year the most successful yet."

SBK Closes Year At Successful Dinner

Tickets for the SKB Thanksgiving Dance were put on sale Tuesday, November 2, and can be purchased from any member of SBK or at the ticket booth located in front of the 19th St. entrance to College Hall. Admission to the informal dance to be held November 24 at the Philadelphia Rifle Club is $3.50.

All proceeds from this dance will be used by the SBK to throw its annual Christmas party for the children at St. John's Orphan-

The Seventh Annual Thanksgiving Dance to be sponsored by the La Salle Gamma chapter of Sigma Beta Kappa, will be held tonight at the Philadelphia Rifle Club. Music for the affair will be provided by the Collegians.

Tickets for the dance can still be purchased from any member of SBK or from the ticket booth located near the 19th street entrance of College Hall. Price of the ticket is only $3.50.

All proceeds from the dance will benefit the children at St. John's Orphanage. The funds will be used to give the annual Christmas party for the orphans.

Leo Eisenstein, president of SBK, invites all students to be present at the dance and make this Christmas a happy one for the orphans, while having a good time doing it.

Industrial Relations Commission

The Industrial Relations Commission of La Salle College was founded in 1954, and became an active participant in the extra-curricular life of the College during 1955. That same year witnessed the establishment of an Evening Division of the club.

A lecture program was initiated by the club which brought leading men within the fields of management and unionism to the campus. Mr. Edward Toohey, head of the Labor League for Political Education (A.F.L.), Mr. John Ashenfelter, Personnel Manager of the Sun Oil Company, Philadelphia, and Mr. James Convoy, representative for the Steel Workers of America were a few of the important speakers heard by the Commission during the year.

The combined Day and Evening Divisions held their annual dinner at Alden Park Manor on February 26, 1955, and, as an after-course, the members of the IRC attended the La Salle-Temple basketball game.

Continuously active, the IRC also co-sponsored the combined Business Area Dance (S.I.A.M.) held at the Philadelphia Rifle Club in April.

The Praefectus Club

The Praefectus Club is composed of the student managers of the various athletic teams. Membership requirements include an apprenticeship for a period of one year in managerial duties, high scholastic average, keen desire to work for the good of the College, and evidence of loyalty to La Salle and her ideals. Membership is both restricted and selective because each new member must be voted into the organization by the current membership.

Officers for 1954-1955 were William E. Carr, President; Leo Murphy, Vice-President; and William Bickley, Secretary.

MR. ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

JAMES J. HENRY

Mr. James J. Henry, the Athletic Director at La Salle College for the past 20 years, has been the key factor for the school's emergence as a power in the realm of sports.

Long an advocate of good clean sports, Mr. Henry, in the often thankless position of Athletic Director, well deserves the acclaim of the College. His fine record is the result of Mr. Henry's policies which are wisely governed by his sound judgment.

Our thanks to you, Mr. Henry, for a job well done.

COACH
JOE SMITH

Despite manpower shortages, coupled with an extremely difficult schedule, Coach Joe Smith's booters were able to amass the second best win-loss record in La Salle's history. Their three big victories included decisions over such powers as Franklin and Marshall, Muhlenberg and Philadelphia Textile Institute.

Co-Captain Al Price was truly an inspirational leader who was greatly responsible for the success that the squad enjoyed. Other seniors who distinguished themselves during the season were: Basil Andriuk, John Manzo, Bob Luce, Joe Maxwell, Neil Minkoff, and Senior Manager Marv. Wallach. Andriuk, Maxwell and Manzo were four year veterans, while Minkoff and Luce starred in their first try with the booters.

Co-Captain Hank DeVincent, along with Bob Rumer will lead the team in 1956.

COACH FRANK WETZLER

Frank Wetzler, former Villanova football star, has handled the Explorer track and cross country squads with remarkable success for the past several years. His patient coaching has developed a long line of standout cinder stars.

Plagued by numerous service calls over the last two seasons, the Harriers have had to carry on the best they could with limited manpower. Despite all their woes, the Wetzlermen still boasted the best individual performer in the area—Joe Merkins. Merkins came in first against Penn, Temple, and St. Joseph's. Junior George Harkins was not too far behind, scoring against Lafayette and Penn. Seniors Bob (Bean) Smith, Bill Dransfield, and Merkins finished four good campaigns.

A bow in appreciation for excellent coaching to— Frank Wetzler.

RIFLE TEAM

THEY SCORE

The youngest of La Salle's varsity teams, the Rifle squad first established three years ago by Major B. A. Finkle of the Military Science Department, has continued to develop steadily under the able direction of Captain John A. Maurer. Playing one of the most colorful schedules ever arranged for an Explorer team, the marksmen have made such interesting trips as: Cornell, VMI, Maryland, Georgetown, University of Virginia and Yale.

Junior Jack Harrell has been the most consistent performer for the squad in both varsity and ROTC matches. Seniors on the team were: Carl Wrightman, Tom Lucia and George Margraff.

The La Salle Rifle Squad had the distinction of having in their fold, one Al Avallon, a graduate of last year's class who distinguished himself as well as the Rifle Squad by winning highest honors in the contest held at Fort Sill, Oklahoma last summer.

MR. BIG IN THE REALM OF BASKETBALL

COACH KENNY LOEFFLER

Ken Loeffler

Ken Loeffler came to La Salle two years before the class of 1955. To attempt to acclaim the brilliance of this mastermind of basketball would be impossible, but such an attempt must be made.

When the versatile Mr. Loeffler agreed to come to tutor the Explorers he had behind him many years of sound coaching. He worked successfully with teams like Yale among the colleges and the St. Louis Bombers among the pros.

The first thing Ken did at La Salle was to install a new system—one which stressed team balance. The success he has had is demonstrated in two ways—(1) His flawless use of an All-American as a member of a team, a team composed not of one star, but five capable ball-players; (2) His remarkable 141-29 record compiled in the past six years at La Salle.

Looking at his record, it is easy to see that Ken Loeffler has established himself as one of the truly great coaches in the basketball game. We salute you, Ken . . . the Knute Rockne of Collegiate Basketball.

A well deserved salute to you—Mario Vetere for a job well done.

LA SALLE'S NEW BASKETBALL COACH

Jim Pollard, former All-American at Stanford and six-time All-Pro selection with the Minneapolis Lakers became our eighth basketball coach in the last twenty-five years. He follows Jim Henry, Tom Conley, Charlie O'Brien, Len Tanseer, Joe Meehan, Charlie McGlone, and Ken Loeffler.

JIM POLLARD

Jim began his basketball career in 1941 at Stanford. In his soph year, because of his all around play, he joined with Howie Dallmar in leading the Stanford Indians to the NCAA Championship. In 1942 Pollard was named to the All-American quintet. Following his abbreviated career in college ball, Jim joined the Coast Guard where he played with a service five. After the required tenure in the Coast Guard, Jim joined the AAU circles with the Dons of San Diego. From San Diego, Pollard moved to the Oakland Bittners where he compiled a good record.

The rest you might call basketball history. In 1946 Pollard signed a pro contract with the Minneapolis Lakers, at that time a new team in the BAA League. In the eight years with the Lakers, Jim, who has been tabbed the "Kangaroo Kid" and "Jumpin' Jim", amassed a great record as a floor man and terrific clutch shooter. In 497 games in his professional career Pollard has scored 6,522 points for a lifetime average of 13.1 per game. His best year was the 1951-52 docket when he piled up a 15.5 norm.

Pollard, now 33 and married and the father of three youngsters, knows a good bit about the coaching routine although this will be his first endeavor in that capacity. He relates that the Explorers chances are good even with the graduation of Tom Gola. The nucleus rests in the old veterans and the new comers to the Explorer varsity, plus any returning cagers who have lost time due to one handicap or another.

Remember, As we Leave, That....

In the twilight of a warm September evening in 1950, the Class of '55, initiated its college career in a determined quest for scholarship, friendship, and culture. Within the nostalgic environs of LaSalle's campus, we found the education which was so generously afforded us under the guidance of the Christian Brothers.

Truly we have known memorable years in attaining our objectives. Among the members of the Class of '55, many fellows arose to lead the various campus organizations to greater heights. As we recall our history, we find that our class formed the nucleus of campus activity. The stature of our class has been greatly enhanced by these men who distinguished themselves in many directive positions. They served as Chairmen of all the activities such as the Winter and Spring Dances, the Stag Nights, Sport Nights, and the Communion Breakfasts. Each affair increased in success so that they easily equaled and often surpassed the social undertakings of our neighbor colleges. Then, too, from among our ranks, the men of '55 held key positions as officers of the many societies, organizations, and clubs on the campus, including the Student Congress and Collegian Staff.

As we look in retrospect this year, we find that the Winter and Spring Dances, the Stag Nights, and the Dinner Dance were the most successful affairs, both financially and socially, that the campus has ever known. The Evening Division Constitution was revised and streamlined to allow a smoother operation for the student body. A new organization, the Industrial Relations Society was founded, and gives evidence that it will become a leader among the other groups. The class also undertook establishing a set method of procedure for Senior Classes in the future, in the form of a senior representative system.

In surveying the past five years, we might say that we haven't always had it easy, that perhaps we were discouraged at times, but most certainly, no one ever willingly chose to give up. Our participation in the social activities at LaSalle along with the fine education we received, fully accomplished our one desire—a well rounded liberal education.

May the Class of '55, and those that follow, always endeavor to show the virtues they gained at LaSalle in their every deed and action. Let us never forget our job as members of the alumni to repay in some measure what LaSalle has given to us.

Senior Class Representatives and Officers

The first senior organization was conceived two years ago in order to alleviate the responsibilities of the Student Congress in relation to planning senior activities. This enabled the senior class to have an organization of its own whereby it could plan activities solely for the class. Since then, the organization has grown enormously and achieved an enviable record of success in its undertakings.

The representatives were elected by the entire senior class and, from these men, the officers were chosen. The officers, desiring only the best for their class, promoted activities such as the Senior Stag and the Dinner Dance which were more successful than those of any other class. Besides those activities, the promotion and editing of the yearbook was also entrusted to the senior class.

The Class of '55 proudly hails these men for their wonderful accomplishments.

Student Congress

CHARLES A. J. COYLE
President

Since its inception in 1949, the Student Congress of the Evening Division has acted as the official representative of the student body in relations with the administration and the faculty of the College in matters related to extra-curricular activities and student welfare. In general, its purpose is to cultivate, promote, and manage all social and other affairs conducted for the benefit of the entire student body; to promote the general welfare of the students and of LaSalle College; and to act as an advisory body between the students and the administration.

The structure of Congress consists of four officers and elected representatives from each class, who unselfishly devote their energy and time in the interests of the student body. The Student Congress has three executive units to facilitate the operation of the organization in its immense and manifold tasks. These units are the Constitution Committee, the Policy Committee, and the Membership Committee.

The Student Congress has achieved an enviable record of progress and success, so much so, that any student governing organization would be proud to claim it for their own.

The Dr. Sprissler Award Committee

DR. JOSEPH J. SPRISLER

Composed entirely of seniors appointed by the Student Congress, the Dr. Joseph J. Sprissler Award Committee has the most important task of selecting the recipient whom they deem has been the most instrumental in furthering the ideals and interests of LaSalle College. These men spend countless hours in carefully screening the records and accomplishments of each member of the entire senior class in order to select the most deserving senior for the plaque which is awarded.

The Award was originated three years ago to honor the man who generously contributed his time and effort unceasingly for the success of the Evening Division and the well being of its Students. This man, who is endeared in all our hearts, is Dr. Joseph J. Sprissler, who, at the time of the origination of the award, was Director of the Evening Division. In this way do we perpetuate our sincere thanks to Dr. Sprissler and to the student chosen.

The Accounting Association

The aims of the Association are to foster better relations among Accounting students and to promote greater interest in the accounting profession. A recruiting drive staged by the officers of the group resulted in an active membership which was more than tripled over the preceding year.

Practicing members of the Public Accounting and Cost Accounting fields, as well as the Internal Revenue Bureau addressed the group. Mr. Walter J. Kaiser, C.P.A., of the faculty, acted as Moderator of both Evening and Day Division Associations and worked to coordinate the activities of both.

The chief social event of the Association calendar was the second Annual Dinner-Dance held April 30th at the Sunken Gardens. This event, to which all the members and their ladies were invited, proved to be an unqualified success.

Industrial Relations Society

This is the first year of the society, and the membership is composed of Evening Division students whose interests are centered in the field of industrial relations. The object of the organization is to promote good fellowship and the exchange of viewpoints related to the country's industrial problems which certainly, through the expansion of the unionist's movement and the growth of industry, is becoming more important and more complicated.

It has been sensed by the college authorities that a course in industrial relations will fit the students in the fundamentals to the extent it will enable them to intelligently cope with the industrial as well as the human problems as they may occur. The activities of the society will be a supplement, affording students the opportunity of learning the latest advances in industrial relations theory and becoming acquainted with the practical side by meeting leaders working in the field.

The Marketing Association

The activities of the Marketing Association were highlighted by speaker meetings held both on and off the campus during the past year. To carry out a well balanced program, a particular phase of Marketing such as Advertising, Salesmanship, or Sales Promotion was discussed at each meeting.

Again this year, members attending the meetings were able to acquire ready information and also to discuss various marketing procedures with prominent business men in the marketing field from the Philadelphia area.

The activities for the year were brought to a successful conclusion at the Second Annual Social Night. The response to the affair was most enthusiastic. Members, together with their wives or guests, joined in this wonderful opportunity to further friendships and enjoy the occasion.

The officers of this association were John Carberry, President; Richard Langan, Vice - President; Wilbur Wirth, Treasurer; and Edward Gray, Secretary. Faculty guidance was provided with enthusiasm by George Swoyer, Assistant Professor of Marketing and Moderator of the Association.

Society For The Advancement of Management

Hampered by the time restrictions inherent in an evening program, the Evening Division section of the Society for the Advancement of Management nevertheless continued the same fine cooperation with their day school counterpart that led to the winning of last year's coveted "Most Active Chapter" award.

The usual program of speaker meetings was supplemented by increased Evening Division participation in the guided tours of industrial concerns arranged by the day school group.

Assurance of future vitality was provided by officers Bob Kelly and Paul Frankenfield by the appointment of a membership committee. The committee has been charged with the responsibility of formulating programs for maintaining the ED SAM'S place in the LaSalle sun.

Collegian

The Collegian, student newspaper of the Evening Division, serves as the main medium of communication between the Administration, the Faculty, and the Student Body. It is operated by students for their fellow students and friends who are interested in the college.

Its function is to promote and assist the many associations, clubs, and activities about the campus in publicizing their various extra-curricular functions as well as "keeping track on" the newsworthy happenings in the lives of individual students.

The Fourth Annual Communion Breakfast

The Fourth Annual Communion Breakfast was the spiritual highlight of the college year 1954-55 for the students of the Evening Division. The large number of faculty members and of students who attended was a wonderful testimony of faith and an expression of interest in the activities sponsored by the Student Congress.

At the Breakfast, an excellent speaking program, under the guidance of Mr. Lawrence Bowman, the perennial toastmaster, was climaxed by the humorous but deeply spiritual talk of the Right Reverend Monsignor Joseph G. Cox, the Rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist. The life of St. Thomas More and its implications for meeting the insincere and anti-Christian practices of modern living in both low and high positions will long be remembered by his listeners.

Not only was the Communion Breakfast an occasion for spiritual union among the students and faculty, but it was also the occasion of a splendid informal social gathering. The committee deserved the heartfelt appreciation of all who attended.

The Family Forum

The Family Forum was instituted on the campus with the purpose of assisting married and single students of LaSalle College to achieve greater happiness in marriage by familiarizing them with the principles of Christian Marriage and the application of these principles in their everyday living.

Under the direction of Br. D. Augustine, F.S.C. and Father Heath, O.P., College Chaplain, who obtained prominent speakers for the discussions, six forums were held. The discourses were on a variety of subjects dealing with the religious and moral considerations of courtship, marriage, and children.

At the forum, the wives of the married students were honored with a graduation ceremony at which they were awarded a Ph.T., in recognition of their efforts and sacrifices in assisting their husbands to attain the academic status of Bachelor.

Closing devotions were held in the Chapel with prayers to the Blessed Virgin Mary, a renewal of the Marriage vows, and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The Malvern Retreat

Setting aside one week-end of the scholastic year to thank God for all His graces and blessings and to augment their spiritual growth, our students journeyed to St. Joseph's in the Hills for their fourth annual retreat on the week-end of January 29th. Walter Lance served as chairman, James Sammon as retreat captain, William Boyle and Charles Boyce as associate captains.

Adoration Society

The Adoration Society continued along the same successful path this year as last in the promotion of religious activities among the students of the Evening Division. Under its direction, nightly recitation of the rosary was held in the chapel along with other devotions and the showing of religious films. The society was very instrumental in encouraging students to participate in the Malvern Retreat and the Communion Breakfast and added much to the success of these affairs. Under the direction of Father Heath, O.P., College Chaplain, the members of the Adoration Society established the Marian Year devotion and inaugurated the Perpetual Novena to our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. The officers of the Adoration Society are L. to R. Charles Boyce, President; Robert Kelly, Vice President; Louis Potenza, Treasurer; and Richard Prendergast, Secretary.
